

Do you know a teenager who wants to be Prime Minister?

If they win this competition, they might learn how. Read on...

Helen Grant, Member of Parliament for Maidstone & The Weald, is offering the chance for two young people to shadow her in the constituency and in Westminster for a year.

The experience will include:- visiting the Houses of Parliament and other central government buildings; seeing debates in the Commons; attending Select Committee meetings, meeting Parish, Borough and County Councillors, other MPs, Ministers and their staff; fund raising; campaigning; and undertaking work experience in Helen's offices in London and Maidstone.

Entrants must be aged between 16 and 18 in September 2011 and either live, or attend school, within the boundaries of the Parliamentary Constituency of Maidstone and The Weald. The competition process will reflect the way in which a Prospective Parliamentary Candidate is selected, including; presenting a CV, having an interview, giving a short speech and undertaking a short Question & Answer session.
